Verdict for Dr. Pierce

AGAINST THE

Ladies' Home Journal.

Sending truth after a lie. It is an old maxim that "a lie will travel seven leagues while truth is getting its boots on," and no doubt hundreds of thousands of good people read the unwarranted and malicious attack upon Dr. R. V. Pierce and his "Favorite Prescription" published in the May (1904) number of the Ladies' Home Journal, with its great black display headings, who never saw the humble, groveling retraction, with its inconspicuous heading, published two months later. It was boldly charged in the slanderous and libelous article that Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription, for the cure of woman's weaknesses and ailments, contained alcohol and other harmful ingredients. Dr. Pierce promptly brought suit against the publishers of the Ladies' Home Journal, for $300,000.00 damages.

Dr. Pierce alleged that Mr. Bok, the editor, maliciously published the article containing such false and defamatory matter with the intent of injuring his business; furthermore, that no alcohol, or other injurious, or habit-forming, drugs are, or ever were, contained in his "Favorite Prescription"; that said medicine is made from native medicinal roots and contains no harmful ingredients whatever; and that Mr. Bok's malicious statements were wholly and absolutely false.

In the retraction printed by said Journal, they were forced to acknowledge that they had obtained the advice of "a variety of Prescription," from eminent chemists all of whom certified that it did not contain alcohol or any of the other alleged harmful drugs.

These facts were also proven in the trial of the action in the Supreme Court, and the business of Dr. Pierce was greatly injured by the publication of the libelous article, while the great display headlines, while hundreds of thousands who read the wickedly defamatory article never saw the humble, groveling retraction, set in small type and made as inconspicuous as possible. The matter was, however, brought before a jury in the Supreme Court of New York State which promptly rendered a verdict in the Doctor's favor. Thus his traducers came to grief and their base slanders were refuted.

HEALTHY PLANTS

Did you ever see a rosebush which—despite the most beneficent environment of soil—of sunshine—and of atmosphere—seemed never to achieve a healthy growth.

A ton of manure will not help a plant that has a canker eating out its heart.

You must destroy the cause before you can remove the effect.

You cannot cure Dandruff and Baldness by rubbing on hair lotions, and rubbing in vaseline, etc.

You must look to the cause of the trouble—it's a germ at the roots of your hair which causes it to fall out.

Two sizes—50 cents and $1.00.

Catarrh

To prove unquestionably, and beyond any doubt, that Catarrh of the nose and throat can be cured, I am furnishing patients through druggists, small free Trial Boxes of Dr. Shoop's Catarrh Cure. I do this because I am so certain, that Dr. Shoop's Catarrh Cure will bring actual substantial help. Nothing certainly, is so convincing as a physical test of any article of real, genuine merit. But that article must possess true merit, else the test will condemn, rather than advance it. Dr. Shoop's Catarrh Cure is a snow white, healing antiseptic balm, put up in beautiful nickel capped glass jars at 50c. Such soothing agents as Oil Eucalyptus, Thymol, Menthol, etc., are incorporated into a velvety, cream like Petrolatum, imported by Dr. Shoop from Europe. If Catarrh of the nose and throat has extended to the stomach, then by all means also use internally, Dr. Shoop's Restorative. Stomach distress, a lack of general strength, bloating, belching, biliousness, bad taste, etc. surely call for Dr. Shoop's Restorative.

HICKS FOR MAY.

A regular storm period, having its center on April 30, comes over into the 1st, 2nd and 3rd of May. Low barometer and general storm conditions will be advancing from west to east by the end of April and these conditions will culminate in rain, wind and thunder storms from the 1st to the 3rd. In extreme northern sections unreasonable cold, with possible sleet and snow, will attend these storms, sending a cool wave progressively down over most parts of the country from about the 3rd to the 6th.

A reactionary storm period falls on the 5th, 7th and 8th. This is at the center of the Mercury period, at the entrance of the Venus period, with Mars, Jupiter and Saturn influences all in force. Decided storm conditions will cross the country on and touching the 6th, 7th and 8th, with strong probabilities of a continuation of same into the following storm period.

A regular storm period runs from the 10th to the 15th, central on the 12th. On the same date the moon is in conjunction with the earth and sun, making this whole storm period also a time of great seismic probability, notably on or within two days of the 12th. We will name the 12th, 13th and 14th as central days of severe storm probabilities. Warm, humid atmosphere, with low barometer and southerly winds, should cause apprehension and watchfulness in the face of gathering storm clouds at the time. Change to cooler will start in the northwest about the 18th and spread eastward to southeastward during the 14th to 17th.

A reactionary storm period is central on the 18th, 19th and 20th. On and touching these dates look for rapid and great change to falling barometer and warmer. A probably cycle of daily rain, wind and thunder storms will set in about this time, repeating themselves many consecutive days.

A regular storm period is central on the 23rd, covering the 22nd to 26th.—The center of the Mars period is on the 25th, within three days of the center of the Venus period on the 29th. No careful student of these forecasts will ignore the fact that the 23rd, 24th and 25th and days next to them are dates of probable danger, calling for quiet and sensible scrutiny of all indications and all gathering storm clouds. Many destructive hail storms are almost certain to attend the storms about the 22d to 25th.

A reactionary storm period is central on the 28th, 29th and 30th. The center of the Venus period is on the 29th. If storms and storm conditions do not continue from the preceding period, look for such to return on and touching the 28th and 29th. The full moon near perigee on the 27th, under the combined strain of Mars, Venus, Saturn and Jupiter, may reasonably be expected to bridge the interval between the last two storm periods of the month. In this event a prolonged spell of threatening, stormy weather would prevail from near the 23d to the end of the month. One thing is sure. Whatever conditions may exist at this time will have been foreshadowed by previous conditions in the Mars period and those conditions will reach a decided crisis during the last ten days of May. Another crisis of seismic perturbation will return on and within two days of the 27th.

Good Words for Chamberlain's Cough Remedy.

People everywhere take pleasure in testifying to the good qualities of Chamberlain's Cough Remedy. Mrs. Edward Phillips, of Barclay, Md., writes: "I wish to tell you that I can recommend Chamberlain's Cough Remedy. My little girl, Catherine, who is two years old, has been taking this remedy whenever she has a cold since she was two months old. About a month ago I contracted a dreadful cold myself, but I took Chamberlain's Cough Remedy and was soon as well as ever." This remedy is for sale by W. F. Creighton and Gibson & Timberman.

Successful Test.

The submarine boat Octopus yesterday broke two speed records in her trial trips before the government board which is conducting a series of tests and experiments of this class of boats at Newport, R. I. Going three times over the regulation course, the Octopus made an average surface speed of a fraction over eleven knots, using her engine alone and reserving her batteries for submerging. Later, in a semi-submerged condition, as required by the board's regulations, she beat the world's record by making ten knots. The batteries were used for the semi-submerged tests. In making these speeds, the boat exceeded her contract requirements by more than half a knot. At the conclusion of the last run the boat made a dive for the purpose of demonstrating her ability to go under the water at a moment's notice. The dive which the boat made was the first one during the tests and was entirely successful.

A Hard Debt to Pay.

The ominous dry, hacking cough quit before the first bottle was used, and two more bottles made a complete cure." Nothing has ever equaled New Discovery for coughs, colds and all throat and lung complaints. Guaranteed by E. S. Leadbeater & Sons, druggists. 50c and $1.00. Trial bottle free.

I hereby announce my candidacy for the democratic nomination for Congress from the Eighth congressional district, and in so doing desire to say that if chosen at the forthcoming primary it shall be my constant aim and endeavor to represent faithfully the interests of the entire district.

Adopting that card as a part of this announcement, I now formally announce myself a candidate for Congress from the Eighth congressional district of Virginia, subject to the action of the congressional primary to be held Wednesday, June 19th, 1907.

In the event that I shall be nominated and elected, it will be my earnest desire and ambition to be of service to my district, State and country, and to faithfully represent every interest, and to justify, by every exertion in my power, the confidence reposed in me and honor conferred on me by my fellow democrats. SATURDAY EVENING, MAY 4, 1907.

VAIN man clothed in a little brief authority has ever been viewed with contempt by sensible people. The world has always contained a certain percentage of people who labor under a lifelong distemper to wield power. Jonathan Wild is represented as saying that he would rather rule a dung hill in sheol than to be a high private in heaven. The spirit of this outlaw has animated many in all generations, and often the victims of the mania render themselves ridiculous by their arbitrariness in attempting to wield power. The discerning man is careful—many timid—in handling the dangerous wand. The latest illustration of the thirst to exercise authority comes from Alton, Ill., where a constable realized that he was clothed with power to make arrests, and in the absence of an opportunity to show off at the expense of any one else, made his wife his victim. The woman, it seems, had committed a serious offense—she had broken a dish occasionally—and her husband, making this a sufficient cause upon which to make an arrest, pulled the screaming woman through the streets to the police station. Had the presiding justice ordered the constable to be struck thirty-nine his judgment would have been affirmed by all sensible people.

THE EFFECT of President C. S. Mellin's visit to the White House yesterday has, it is said, been to accentuate fear in the financial world that President Roosevelt's idea of having the railroads of the country valued by the government has been crystallized thereby. This plan is a great bugaboo both to railroad and financial circles, in which all sorts of trouble is seen in the proposition. It is not only considered not practical, but it is claimed that an attempt at such a valuation will disturb general business throughout the country, and especially the financial business. The scheme as it has been outlived would propose, firstly, an attempt to ascertain what it would cost to duplicate each line, and, secondly, to fix an amount approximating the good will of the business. John F. Stevens, former chief engineer of the Panama canal has been employed by the New Haven to value its property ahead of any government scheme of the sort, the purpose being to show that the road, instead of being overcapitalized, is capitalized at figures far below its true value.

THE Dreadnought has shown that she can fire a broadside of eight 12-inch guns without injury to the vessel itself. This battleship is the first to be built for any navy, and is the only one yet in commission, embodying the principle that the main battery should consist exclusively of the heaviest ordnance. As the change involves an increase in the weight of metal to be hurled at an enemy and in the amount of powder employed to protect it, the strains resulting from a collective discharge are correspondently enhanced. For that reason the demonstration now afforded will possess world-wide interest. Other battleships have suffered appreciably from tests which were less severe. Hence the Dreadnought proves a marvel of structural strength, as well as in the quickness with which she was built and equipped.

THE INTERNATIONAL KINDERGARTEN UNION now in session in New York has declared war on the comic sections of Sunday newspapers, and parents have been asked by the union to vie in excluding such sheets from the home. It has often been suggested during late years that those composing the younger generation, by reason of their surroundings, are being led to regard life as a huge joke more than a serious reality, and the caricatures in the Sunday supplements are perpetuating this delusion. The appetite for solid reading is being stunted from the fact that the only pictures studied by the young are parodies on life, and with these prints before them, they eventually graduate on the sporting pages, and here the literary career of many ends.

A BANK teller is on trial in Birmingham, Ala., for embezzling $100,000, and the plea of his lawyer is that he was laboring under the delusion that he could corner the cotton market of the world. There is a good deal of that sort of financial insanity, and it generally leads to the penitentiary instead of the asylum. But if this man imagined that he could corner the cotton supply of the world with $100,000 he is certainly of unsound mind and irresponsible. At least, he was so when he took the money. If he has found out that he couldn't corner the market he may be held to have recovered from his delusion, in which case, of course, there would be nothing to do but to set him at liberty.

The Texas Company, of New York, has awarded the Newport News Shipbuilding & Dry Dock Company the contract for the construction of an immense oil steamer, to cost in the neighborhood of $600,000.

Washington, May 4.

Diplomatic relations between Mexico and Guatemala are about to be ruptured. The Mexican legation at Guatemala City is to be closed and the American minister, Jos. W. J. Lee, at that place, is to take over charge of Mexican interests in Guatemala. In addition important diplomatic action is to be taken, probably today, jointly by the United States and Mexican governments in behalf of a large number of women and children who have been arrested in connection with the recent attempt to assassinate President Estrada Cabrera by throwing a bomb under his carriage. Information has been received at the Mexican Embassy here to the effect that these prisoners, held merely on suspicion, are being badly treated. In the cause of humanity the United States and Mexico intend to step in for their relief. In view of the fact that the Mexican legation is to be closed within the next 48 hours and the Mexican diplomatic representative is to be withdrawn, the work of caring for these unfortunates will fall upon Minister Lee whose legation will be made a place of refuge for them. Whether there are any Americans among them is not definitly known. The rupture between Mexico and Guatemala grows out of the recent murder in Mexico City of former President Barillas, of Guatemala, who was residing there in exile but was recoguized as the leader of the Guatemalan revolutionary party and the man most likely to succeed Cabrera if a revolution should be successful. Two men were arrested for the killing by the Mexican authorities and in their statements they declared that General Jose Lima, who is President Cabrera's closest friend and adviser, instigated the plot against Barillas. The Mexican government at once made a demand upon Guatemala for the extradition of General Lima so that he could face his accusers. President Cabrera has refused to surrender his friend, so Mexico has decided to no longer hold diplomatic intercourse with his government. The result of this action will probably promote a revolutionary movement in Guatemala for the deposition of President Cabrera.

The men who mix up certain mysterious compounds and call it whisky are up in arms against the Attorney General's recent decision. They protest that if they are obliged to label their mixtures "compound" instead of "whisky" they will be ruined in business and millions of dollars worth of their property will be made valueless. The President today received a large delegation of the protestants, mainly from Baltimore and Boston, and, after listening to their argument, promised to ask the Attorney General to reopen the case and give them another chance. Among the whisky men that called were representatives of the Golden Gate Wine Company, Hambro Distilling Co., Canton Distilleries Co., Monticello Distilling Co., Winand Distilling Co., Colonial Distributing Co., and Fleischmann and Co., of Baltimore; and Wm. A. Miller, president of the Massachusetts Wholesale Liquor Dealers Association. The liquor men left with the President a petition which asserts that it is their belief that the facts must have been misrepresented to the Attorney General as well as himself, else they would not have reached the conclusion they did which caused them to make the order. The petition concludes by saying that in their process they take out all the fusel oil and other deleterious substances, and their product is really better therefore than the Attorney General's O K'd whisky.

Charles J. Giers, a clerk in the office of the adjutant general of the army fell from the 4th floor to the ground of the stairway well of the State, War and Navy building and was instantly killed today. He had been suffering for some time from locomotor ataxia and had to use crutches. It is supposed that he slipped accidentally over the bannister.

Forestry experts in the Department of Agriculture have figured out that since 1880 the amount of lumber used in the United States from timber cut in this country has been sufficient to make a floor one inch thick over Vermont, Massasschusette, Connecticut, Rhode Island and Delaware, an area of about 25,000 square miles.

President Roosevelt is making no attempt to conceal his deep interest in the New York situation. To his callers from that State he had freely expressed himself in opposition to Gov. Hughes political enemies. He has made it clear that he will extend every influence of the administration to aid Hughes in his fight against the so-call grafters, and it is understood that he is encouraging the confidences of the Governor and his friends. In this connection Secretary Cortelyou's sudden departure from the city is of considerable significance. Although it is announced at the Treasury Department that the Secretary and his wife have gone to New York on a pleasure trip, is recognized that no man stands close in the confidence of the President than his former private Secretary and there is no one better qualified to unostentatiously extend those expressions "of most distinguished consideration" than he. It is believed here that before many weeks the President and Hughes will be working together in the closest harmony.

It is reported today that Mrs. Roosevelt narrowly escaped death yesterday afternoon. The yacht, Sylph, upon which she was returning from a cruise down the Potomac, crashed into the dock at the navy yard, smashed the yacht's launch like an egg shell between the hull and dock, and brought the heavy flagstaff to the deck. Mrs. Roosevelt was standing three feet from where the great beam fell. A board of inquiry will be summoned to ascertain the cause of the accident.

Isaac Hackley, a demented patient at the Washington University Hospital, escaped from the institution last night in his night clothes. The police are looking for him.

Edward Dorrell, a painter, living at 758 11th street southeast fell from a ladder a distance of 30 feet this morning. He was badly injured about the head and back. He was taken to the hospital.

New York Stock Market.

New York, May 4.—The stock market was under pressure from several sources in the early trading and prices then declined in most of the active issues from ½ to 1½ points. Support came in on the lower range reached and before the end of the first hour a moderate recovery was in progress, led by Union Pacific and Reading, that carried the general list up to within slight fractions of the last night's close. The market closed irregular with list as a whole under yesterday's closing.

News of the Day.

The Italian cruisers Barez and Etruria detailed to represent the Italian navy at the Jamestown Exposition passed in Cape Henry today and dropped anchor in Hampton Roads off the Exposition grounds.

Judge Merrick yesterday granted a new trial to Eugene Proctor, colored, who was found guilty by the court on April 26, 1907, of having attempted to criminally assault Mrs. Minnie Spencer, at her home, near Rosecroft, Prince Georges county, on April 8.

The Allan line steamer Hardina which was forced to put into Halifax, N. S., brought the report today that three large trans-Atlantic liners are imprisoned in the vast ice fields that completely block the Cabot Straight between Newfoundland and Cape Breton. About 3,000 passengers are imperilled, it is said.

Rev. T. M. Lightfoot, pastor of the Baptist Church at Orangeburg, S. C., yesterday morning upon leaving his house stumbled over a coffin placed at his front door, with the evident purpose of intimidating him because of his militant sermons against lawlessness. To the lid was tacked a strip of paper, on which was written: "This will be your box on June 10, 1907; so good-by to E. M. Lightfoot. Peace to his ashes. Anon." Mr. Lightfoot is a native of Pennsylvania, but he went to Orangeburg several years ago from Waynesville, N. C.

Race Against Hydrophobia.

Engaged in race with the dread disease hydrophobia, William Cooper Procter, of Cincinnati, millionaire president of the Procter & Gramble Soap Company, is flying across the country from Cincinnati to New York, on the fastest train between the two cities, and will be hurried at once to the Pasteur Institute for treatment. A bite by a favorite dog which was suffering from rabies brought on the disease. It was two days ago that he was bitten and he started for New York last night. An automobile will be waiting there when he arrives in New York and he will be rushed to the institute without a moment's delay. Procter is a dog fancier and owns one of the finest kennels in the country. It was while trying to separate two of his pets who were fighting that one of the dogs turned on him and buried his fangs in his hand. The wound was cauterized, but his physicians advised that no time be lost in hurrying the afflicted man to New York.

Hydrophobia has since developed among many of Procter's dog and several have been killed. It is hoped the rest can be saved because of their value. Mr. Procter's danger is regarded as more grave because he has suffered much worry since the suicide of his father, who in a fit of melancholia over the death of his wife shot himself on March 29.

[When seen at the Hotel St. Regis in New York today, Mr. Procter denied that he had the rabies, or that he had been rushing from Cincinnati to New York to take treatment at the Pasteur Institute.]

Miss Loving's Letter.

Further investegation of the authenticity of the letter said to have been written by Miss Elizabeth Loving, daughter of Judge Loving, who killed Theodore Estes at Oak Ridge, Nelson county, to a girl friend in Albemarle county, has convinced the newspaper correspondents in Charlottesville who handled the original story, to the effect that the letter exonerated Estes; that their information came from excellent authority, despite the denial from Judge Loving's counsel, A. E Strode. They are convinced that the letter that reached Mr. Strode is but a fragment of the original. Upon receiving the letter from Miss Loving, the young woman, whose name is withheld, 'phoned its contents to a friend, who, hanging up the receiver, repeated what had been told her, and one of those who heard the story, a woman of the highest standing, repeated it to those who communicated it to the newspapers. As repeated, the story included all that the published letter contains and that part which is of chief significance, the exoneration of Theodore Estes. The woman through whom the letter reached the public reaffirms all that she has communicated, and expresses surprise at the denial.

1,000 Per Cent. Profit.

According to the advance reports of the auditors of the Pennsylvania Capitol investigating commission, John H. Sanderson & Co., of Philadelphia, were paid $117,258.40 for the furnishings of the House caucus room of the new Capitol and $88,242.97 for the furnishings of the Senate caucus room.

The most expensive furnishings in these rooms were the rostrums, for which Sanderson was paid $90,748.80, and for which he paid $2,060 to the subcontractor who supplied them. The profits of Sanderson, who supplied all the furnishings in these rooms, are estimated by the auditors at 1,000 per cent.

The State paid $23,576.85 for the chandeliers in the Senate caucus room and $21,000 for those in the House caucus room. The chairs in these two rooms cost the State more than $29,000 and the sofas more than $8,000.

The auditors are preparing a statement showing in detail the cost of the furnishings of every room in the Capitol.

Lion Enlivens Big Fair.

Endangering the lives of 600 spectators and causing a panic, the big lion Denver, of an animal show on the Warpath at the Jamestown Exposition, went on a wild rampage, seriously injuring Keeper John L'ger and almost tearing a leopard to pieces. The leopard caused the trouble by enraging the lion, which tore down the partition between their cages to get at the tormentor. The keeper was injured in trying to separate the two beasts. The spectators became panic-stricken, as had the lion made an effort, he could have escaped. Despite request to keep quiet, scores rushed from the scene. The more hardy stood their ground and saw the fight to a finish.

Automobilist Sentenced.

Worcester, Mass., May 4. — Two months' imprisonment, the severest sentence ever imposed in this county for breaking the automobile speed law, has been given out here by Judge Samuel Utley. The defendant was Louis Oliver, a prominent resident who was charged with running more than 20 miles an hour through the principal streets and ending by colliding with a horse and carriage. He immediately appealed.

Virginia News.

F. A. B. Portman, master of fox hounds of Warrenton Hunt Club, died Thursday night, at his home, of pneumonia. He was a son of Rev. G. Portman.

Mrs. J. Horace Lacy died yesterday at her home in Fredericksburg after a protracted illness, aged eighty-one years. Her husband died several years ago. She was a daughter of the late Col William Jones and was married over fifty years ago. Six children survived her.

Following a revival sermon at Whitacre, Frederick county, Thursday night, Misses Carrie Whitacre and Maggie Carpenter professed conversion and insisted upon the ordinance of baptism being administered at once, although it was 10 o'clock. In the light of a huge bonfire, which was hastily built on the bank of a nearby stream, the young women waded out into the creek and were immersed by the minister, while the congregation stood on the banks and sang hymns.

A dispatch from Norfolk says Mark Twain, and the yacht Kanawha are missing. The Kanawha left Hampton Roads Wednesday and it was reported that she went out of the capes bound for New York. As there have been several severe storms in the Norfolk section recently Mr. H. H. Rogers, owner of the Kanawha, is concerned about the safety of the vessel and his guest. [Mr. Clements was found in New York today, he having left the yacht and proceeded to that city by rail.]

Veterans who wore the blue and those who were the gray met yesterday on the battlefield of Salem Church. The occasion was the unveiling of the monument erected by the State of New Jersey to the Twenty-third Volunteer Regiment on that battlefield in 1863. Judge J. T. Goolrick, of Fredericksburg, a private in the Confederate artillery, delivered the address of welcome. Gen. E. Burd Grubb, Edmund Wilson and others responded. This is said to be the first memorial erected, south of Mason & Dixon's line to union soldiers that bears an inscription to the valor of the southern soldiers.

R. S. Dickson, charged with abducting Miss Madeline Dempsey, daughter of W. L. Dempsey, while under bond of $1,000 for his appearance in the Mayor's Court at Fredericksburg yesterday morning left there early Thursday night on a southbound train, leaving no explanation as to his destination or when he would return. When Dickson's case was called yesterday morning, he did not appear, forfeiting his bond. His counsel was present, but does not know anything of Dickson's movements. The case was postponed till Tuesday morning. Dickson's wife and children left a week or more ago.

The barn belonging to Fairfax Harrison, vice president of the Southern Railway, on his farm, "Belvoir," Fauquier county, was totally destroyed by fire at an early hour yesterday morning together with all the farming implements and 150 barrels of corn. Six heavy draft work horses, one riding horse, two registered Guernsey cows and a calf and one registered Holstein cow owned by Mr. Harrison, one horse and cow belonging to B. F. Smallwood, his foremen, and an imported Clydesdale stallion, owned by a company of that county, were burned to death. The loss is estimated at about $15,000, but is partly covered by insurance.

Jamestown Fair in Need of More Money

It was admitted yesterday by Barton Myers, auditor of the Jamestown Exposition Company, and one of the board of governors of that concern, that the promoters of the exposition had found it necessary to raise $350,000 more funds to complete the grounds and buildings, and the bonds covering that amount would be floated by the exposition company with the exposition property of 500 acres as security.

Such bonds would not be taken in Norfolk, Mr. Myers said, and he gave out the strong inference that private capital outside of the city would have to be enlisted. Coincidental with Mr. Myers' statement is that of another man prominently connected with the exposition to the effect that the Norfolk bankers refused to take up the exposition company's bonds unless a radical reorganization of the executive staff at present in charged of the enterprise were made.

At the offices of the exposition manager it was said yesterday that Harry St. George Tucker, president of the company, and C. Brooks Johnson, chairman of the board of governors of the exposition, had left Norfolk very recently on business, and that it was not known when they would be back. An authoritative report has it that the two fair managers have gone to New York to seek the terms of a capitalist there who is known to be willing to take up the entire bond issue of the exposition concern himself. Nobody cared to reveal who this capitalist was.

It has been common knowledge in Norfolk, though carefully guarded, that at the day of the Jamestown Exposition opening the promoters had no more money to push the unfinished grounds and buildings to completion. It is said, confidentially, that the government was tried, but was obdurate. It has already loaned $1,000,000, and holds the exposition company's note for that amount, which falls due this year.

According to the statement made by Mr. Myers the exposition company has determined upon issuing bonds to cover the amount of the $350,000 deficit.

A dispatch from Norfolk says the officials of the Jamestown Exposition Company and a number of Norfolk bankers held a secret meeting Thursday night, and the latter agreed to finance $350,000 worth of the company's bonds to complete the construction work of the exposition.

Deafness Cannot Be Cured

by local applications, as they cannot reach the diseased portion of the ear. There is only one way to cure deafness, and that is by constitutional remedies. Deafness is caused by an inflamed condition of the mucous lining of the Eustachian Tube. When this tube is inflamed you have a rumbling sound or imperfect hearing, and when it is entirely closed Deafness is the result, and unless the inflammation can be taken out and this tube restored to its normal condition, hearing will be destroyed forever; nine cases out of ten are caused by Catarrh, which is nothing but an inflamed condition of the mucous surfaces.

We will give One Hundred Dollars for any case of Deafness (caused by catarrh) that cannot be cured by Hall's Catarrh Cure. Send for circulars, free.

Today's Telegraphic News

The Haywood Case.

Boise, Idaho, May 4.—Judge Wood, according to reports current today, has decided to hold the testimony in the Haywood case as close as possible to the murder of former Governor Steunenberg. If the doors were thrown wide open the evidence would cover the entire history of labor troubles in this region, which began in 1892. From four to six months will be required for the telling of both sides of that story in court. The charge in this case is that Haywood conspired to bring about the death of Steunenberg and under Idaho laws a conspirator is arraigned as a principal. It seems probable, therefore, that there is truth in the report that Judge Wood will only admit such testimony as is necessary to bring out all the facts relating to this murder.

Naturally, Haywood's record would figure in this showing, but to just what extent cannot be known until the questions of the admissibility of evidence are argued in court. Attorneys for the State believe that the trial will be finished by the fourth of July.

It is reported that Steve Adams, who long promised to be one of the star figures in the case, may be left out of it. He made a confession to Detective McPartland, the Pinkerton in charge of the collection of evidence for the prosecution, so McPartland said, in which he alleged that officials of the Western Federation had hired him to throw Greek fire on a train load of non-union miners and to perform other feats equally bloody.

Adams has since repudiated the alleged confession. A close friend of Haywood said today that Adams' repudiation destroyed his value as a witness for the State. In view of his contradictions, it is not thought probable that he would add anything of value to the defense and that he will be placed on the retired list.

After the Elopers.

New York, May 4.—The deputy sheriffs of Nassau county are on their way to Peekskill, N. Y., to arrest Jere K. Cooke, the unfrocked and fugitive rector of St. George's Episcopal church at Hempstead, L. I., and Floretta Whaley, his seventeen year-old heiress-ward, with whom he eloped. The former minister will be arrested on a charge of abduction, and the girl will be held as a witness pending instructions from her grandmother. The first news of the locating of the runaways came to Mineola, L. I., this morning, when Assistant District Attorney Bennett received a long distance telephone call from the Chief of Police at Peekskill, informing him that Cooke and the girl had been located in a hotel at that place. The chief asked for instructions, and was told to detain the couple. The news of the apprehension of the couple was quickly taken to Mrs. Whaley, at Hempstead, the grandmother of the missing girl, who went before Judge Getting at Mineola, and swore out a warrant for Cooke's arrest. Deputies immediately left with a warrant for Peekskill.

Peekskill, N. Y., May 4.—The couple placed under surveillance here today believed to be Rev. Jere Knode Cooke and Florette Whaley, the eloping couple of Hampstead, are not the missing minister and his heiress ward.

Attempt to Wreck King's Train!

Geneva, Switzerland, May 4—A very serious interpretation is placed by the newspaper here on an accident to a railway train on which King Edward was traveling to France. It is asserted here that the "accident" was in reality an attempt to wreck the train. Just before entering the Simplon tunnel the train was stopped at Sion, as a precautionary measure, and it was found that the grease box on one axle was missing. The axle was at white heat. Had the train continued the axle must have fused, derailing the train. It was first given out that the overheating of an axle had compelled the removal of a car from the king's train. It is now stated that the bolts and pins securing the box had been deliberately removered and an inquiry has been started.

Record 17 Centuries Old.

Allahabad, British India, May 4.—Dr. N. A. Stein, leader of an Indian Government mission, has made important archaeological discoveries in Chinese Turkestan. On the site of an ancient village in a desert northward of Niya he obtained a rich yield of antiquities illustrating every-day life 17 centuries ago, showing the predominant influence to have been Greco-Buddhist art, and including records written on wooden tablets in the script of the Kharosth. At Miram he found nearly 1000 Tibetan records. Many interesting art remains were discovered in a ruined Buddhist shrine, including colossal stucco reliefs closely related to the Greco-Buddhist sculpture of the early centuries of the Christian era.

Atlantic City, May 4.—Three times a day—when she breakfasts, lunches and dines—cablegrams are laid beside the plate of little Miss Yvonne Guarard, a 7-year-old guest at the Hotel Traymore.

Little Miss Guarard is the daughter of wealthy French people, who brought her to this country to attend an American school. Her parents recently returned to France, and the child, falling ill, came here with an attendant and is installed in palatial apartments in the beach-front hotel. Each day she sends three cablegrams to her parents, who likewise send three to her.

Dover, Del., May 4.—The body of Horace Marvin was found this afternoon on Dr. Marvin's farm, near this place. The remains were in a fair state of preservation.

Suicide on a Steamboat.

New York May 4.—In a lonely and dark corner of the upper deck of the People's Line steamer C. W. Morse, Ernest W. Huffcut, dean of the Cornell Law School and private counsel to Gov. Hughes, killed himself early today by sending a bullet into his right temple. The body was not found until late in the morning, when Second Mate Egan found it sitting upright in a chair on deck. Beside him was a revolver.

Two letters were left by the suicide in his stateroom. One was addressed to the coroner, and the other to his sister, Miss Lillian Huffcut. In his note to the coroner, Huffcut asked that the body be turned over to his sister as speedily as possible.

The other letter indicated that Huffcut had contemplated suicide. It began: "I left Ithaca tonight decided to take my body to you in New York for cremation."

Huffcut begged that there should be no public ceremony at his funeral, and asked that no one but D., should be there. He advised his sister, if she had trouble in disposing of his body, to call upon "my old friend Tess, and he will help you out."

It was some time before Huffcut's body was identified and the police then instituted an immediate hunt for the sister, while the coroner took charge of the remains.

Released on Bail.

New York, May 4.—Oliver M. Dennett, the broker who was arrested with W. O. Douglass, former employe of the Trust Company of America, on the charge of looting the company of hundreds of thousands of dollars worth of bonds, was released today from the Tombs on $10,000 cash bail. The money was put up by Forbes J. Hennessey, Dennett's counsel, who took it to the city chamberlain's office. On the receipt he received, Assistant District Attorney Minor ordered Dennett's release. The money, it is understood, was raised by several relatives of Dennett, each of whom contributed to the bail. It is understood that when Dennett's comes up for trial Douglass will be the chief witness against him.

Reconciled on Death Bed.

Boston, May 4.—Camille Stafford, one of the most fearless parachute jumpers, and high trapeze performers in the country, died last night at the city hospital from the results of an operation. On her death bed she was reconciled to her husband, Eugene Stafford, who had been separated from her since February 1903, when out of jealousy, he killed Maynor D. Trussell, whom he found in his wife's room. Mrs. Stafford and the other government witness refused to go on the stand against Stafford, and he was allowed to go free. At the time of her death, the woman was running a lodging house.

Case Given to the Jury.

Wilkes Barre, Pa., May 4.—The trial of the thirteen members of the Black Hand society came to an end today and was given to the jury after a strong charge by Judge Halsey. A sensational incident occurred this morning when the prision van containing the defendants and two deputy sheriffs broke down en route from the jail to the court house. The fifteen men were locked in the van when it left the prison and half way to the court house the horses ran away. A wheel collapsed and the van with its inmates turned turtle on the street. The men inside were tossed about and several were painfully cut and bruised.

Wedding.

Wilmington, Del., May 4.—Distinctly the social event of the season took place today when Miss Alice Lee, daughter of Gov. and Mrs. Preston Lee, was married to William C. Spruance, jr. The wedding took place at "The Orchards," the Governor's country home, near Delaware City. Elaborate preparations have been in progress for the wedding for several months and the scene today was one of beauty. Following the wedding a reception was given previous to the wedding trip.

Not Count von Walstein.

Vienna, May 4.—It is believed here that the Austrian count killed in California during a running fight with officers in the belief that he was a desperado, was not Count Otto von Walstein, as reported, but Count Ottokar. The latter went to the United States in 1905 on account of financial difficulties. He is supposed to have been somewhere in the western states. The Count's wife is now living in a suburb of Prague.

Train Wrecked.

Raton, N. M., May 4.—West bound Santa Fe passenger train No. 1, carrying many Shriners, to Los Angeles, was wrecked 30 miles south of here by the breaking of an axle under the engine tender. Twelve of the 20 passengers were injured, ten seriously, but not fatally. Passengers were thrown into panic and some jumped through windows and were cut by glass.

Virginian Defeated.

Richmond, Va., May 4.—"Pony" Joe Altman, of Cincinnati, defeated John P. Brent, Virginia's champion roller skater, last night at the Auditorium Skating Rink, making the mile in 2:54, breaking all previous records in Virginia on rollers. Brent was less than three feet behind Altman, at the finish. Over three thousand Virginia admirers cheered the plucky little Ohioan as he flashed over the tape a winner.

Young Gould Wins Championship.

London, May 4.—Young Jay Gould, the 18-year-old son of George Gould, the American financier, after a plucky uphill fight today, wrested the international tennis championship from Eustace H. Miles defeating the title holder by taking three sets out of five. The match was played before a large and fashionable gallery, and the victory of the young American was heartily cheered.

Sore Nipples.

Any mother who has had experience with this distressing ailment will be pleased to know that a cure may be effected by applying Chamberlain's Salve as soon as the child is done nursing. Snow Storm.

Buffalo, N. Y., May 4.—This city was struck by a snow storm today and the Park street trees were loaded with the white flakes. December temperature prevailed. Not in half a century has such weather conditions prevailed here in the month of May.

Death of Rossi.

Rome, May 4.—Arcangelo Rossi, the famous tenor, who attempted suicide at Milan on Thursday in a fit of melancolia, caused by the loss of his voice, is dead. Physicians were unable to stop the flow of blood, and finally his life ebbed away.

Tariff on Watches.

Mr. Charles A. Keene, of New York, president of the Independent Watch Dealers' Association which is fighting the so-called "watch trust," visited the White House yesterday and called the attention of President Roosevelt to the fact that American made watches can be bought cheaper abroad under the protective tariff than in the United States and that they could be brought back to the United States and sold at retail prices lower than the wholesale prices quoted by their makers.

Mr. Keene informed the President that he was presenting to him one of these foreign-bought. American-made watches as a demonstration of the methods of the watch trust and of the inequalities of the tariff. President Roosevelt refused to accept the watch, saying that it was against the policy of the White House for him to do so. The watch, however, had already been mailed to the President, who will receive it, and if he cannot accept it may return it to Mr. Keene.

Big Dam Crushes Out Lives.

One of the great walls of the Chuviscar, Mexico, dam suddenly gave way yesterday engulfing nearly 40 men under the enormous weight of masonry and water. Between 15 and 20 of the workmen are dead, 13 injured and several others missing. Some of the injured will die. All the victims are Mexicans. The disaster is the latest of a large number which have recently claimed nearly 200 victims in that State, mostly in the neighborhood of Chihauhua. The authorities are making an investigation into the present catastrophe and will severely punish those on whom they may place the blame. According to the version of the affair which reached Chihuahua, the men were working on a foundation close to the foot of the main rampart of the dam, which already had been constructed. The main wall was weakened and gave out under the water pressure. The dam was being built for irrigation purposes and was a large enterprise.

Virginia Crops Not Hurt.

Following a conference of the Southern Produce Exchange, composed of all the leading farmers in the Norfolk trucking belt, it was announced yesterday that though the month just closed—the coldest April in the history of modern trucking there—has put back the crops to a large extent and brought about unfavorable conditions with respect to early truck shipments to the north, east and west, cloudy conditions, together with high winds, saved that section to a large extent, leaving truck, strawberries and fruit in better condition than in the trucking territory south and southwest of Virginia, where frosts did heavy damage, even as far as Texas.

ACCUMULATIONS.

The opening of Spring reminds the prudent man and woman that it is time to get rid of the accumulations of the winter season. The body demands it as the price of comfort and health. In old times the Spring was the season for strong physicking, and heroic were the measures often taken. Nowadays the prudent at this time of the year take a mild but effective prescription, such as ½ oz. Fluid Extract of Buchu, 1 oz. Bulso Mixture, ½ oz. Fluid Extract Gentian Compound and 15 ozs. water. This, taken in doses of a tablespoonful three times day, before meals, is said to do work far better than the drastic drugs of old and is vastly more pleasant. The prescription can be put up by any good pharmacy at small cost.

Tuberculosis Congress.

During the last ten days of September and the first ten days of October, 1908 a large number of distinguished men from all parts of the world, physicians, hygienists, sociologists and humanitarians, will assemble in Washington to discuss the problem of tuberculosis. This great gathering will be organized under the name of the International Congress on Tuberculosis. It will number several thousand members and delegates, and the visitors to Washington, on account of the Congress, will number thousands more. The exhibition which will be made on this occasion will be open and free to the public at all times and its contents will be as interesting to the man in the street, or to the high school pupil, as to the savant. Tuberculosis exhibitions have been held in many American cities and have attracted visitors by thousands. The value of the exhibition as a means of arresting popular attention has there been proved by experience. Alexandria being situated within half an hours ride to the capital city, residents of this city will be afforded an opportunity to study this important subject.

The Murder in the County.

George Garrett, colored, who is charged with the murder of Louis Ledden, of Washington, in a resort at Rosslyn Thursday, is still held pending a preliminary hearing before Justice Thompson.

Garrett claims that the shooting was an accidental result of "skylarking." Details of the killing were given yesterday by witnesses before a jury, summoned by Coroner Ashton. The verdict was that the man came to his death by a wound from a pistol in the hands of George Garrett. Hillman Hemphill, colored, testified that Ledden and Garrett were "playing soldier" in a room in which several white and colored persons, including women, had gathered, and that the pistol held by Garrett was discharged accidentally. Other testimony was to the effect that the two men were friendly.

Dr. William Phillips, of Washington, said to be the proprietor of the place where the shooting occurred, and several others, are kept in custody in the county to testify at the hearing. They are making arrangements to be released on bail.

Reception to Pastor.

Rev. G. I. Humphreys, who was recently appointed pastor of the Methodist Protestant Church, was tendered a public reception in the church last night. A large company was present and the affair was one of the most pleasant in that line that has been witnessed in Alexandria for a long time. The address of welcome in behalf of the Ministerial Association was made by Rev. Edgar Carpenter, rector of Grace Church, and the address of welcome in behalf of the congregation was delivered by Mr. John H. Trimyer. Rev. Mr. Humphreys responded. All the addresses were well conceived and well delivered. A musical programme was rendered during the evening and was greatly enjoyed.

Politica'.

Chairman Bendheim will call a meeting of the city democratic committee next week to fill vacancies existing on that committee and to discuss matters concerning the approaching elections.

The members of the senatorial committee, composed of the chairmens of the city and county committees of Alexandria city and county, Fairfax and Prince William counties will soon appoint a date for holding a primary to nominate a candidate for the State Senate.

Senator Machen has asked that the primary be held on June 19, the same day on which a congressional candidate is to be chosen, but as sixty days notice must be given of such primary, of course Mr. Machen's request cannot be granted.

Mr. Machen said today that while he would like to have the primary held on June 19 yet any day would suit him and he was perfectly willing that the committee should set any day for it that they pleased.

Pretty Dance.

A very pretty dance was given last night at McBurney's Hall by a number of ladies of this city in return for the number of dances given during the season by the Alexandria German Club. The committee of arrangements was composed of Miss Grace Anderson and Miss Hattie Douglas who spared no pains in making the dance a success. Mr. Harry Beverley led the german, introducing many new and pretty figures, and the large number present heartily enjoyed the evening. Among the chaperones were Mrs. Douglas, Mrs. Jones, Mrs. Robinson, Mrs. Uhler, Mrs. Faulkner and Mrs. Mushbach.

Messrs. Brumback & Smith have completed their bill of exceptions to be presented to the Court of Appeals in the case of George Midgets, colored, who has been sentenced to be hanged in this city on the 24th instant for the murder of Charles T. Smith. The papers are now in the hands of Commonwealth's Attorney Brent who will make a careful examination of them. Next week the attorneys will appear before Judge Barley and agree finally upon the bill as it will be submitted to the Court of Appeals.

New Church.

Those who recently withdrew from the M. P. Church held a meeting at the German Lutheran Church last night and decided to organize another church. Mr. J. R. Caton presided at the meeting. Mr. N. S. Until further notice the meetings will be held in the First Presbyterian Church.

The interment will be made tomorrow (Sunday) at 3 p. m., at All Saints' Memorial Chapel at the foot of Cedar Mountain, and one mile from Mitchell's station.

Relief from Rheumatic Pains.

"I suffered with rheumatism for over two years," says Mr. Rolland Curry, a patrolman, of Key West, Fla. "Sometimes it settled in my knees and lamed me so I could hardly walk, at other times it would be in my feet and hands so I was incapacitated for duty. One night when I was in severe pain and lame from it my wife went to the drug store here and came back with a bottle of Chamberlain's Pain Palm. I was rubbed with it and found the pain had nearly gone during the night. I kept on using it for a little more than two weeks and found that it drove the rheumatism away. I have not had any trouble from that disease for over three months." For sale by W. F. Creighton and Gibson and Timberman.

To all appearances the Pajamarite is a two-piece pajama, but in reality it is a union garment, the top of the trousers being securely sewn to the coat on the under side. This garment is particularly desirable for lounging, and is shown in chambray, nainsook, check muslin, madras, and soisette.

SATURDAY EVENING, MAY 4, 1907.

Confession of a Murderer.

Charles H. Rogers, who was placed in Goshen, N. Y., jail yesterday evening to await trial for the Olney-Ingerick murders, near Middletown, in October, 1905, made a full confession to Sheriff Decker, Chief of Police McCoach and Under Sheriff Herock Thursday while en route from Los Angeles, Cal., where he was arrested a few weeks ago. Rogers' story was a remarkably cool recital of a horrible crime for which he doesn't appear to have any regret. Although the deed was committed for the purpose of securing money, he says he only got $16 in cash. Rogers says he went to the Olney farm on the morning of October 6, 1905, and on the pretense that he was a detective, decoyed the brothers to a woods, where he shot them. Rogers rifled their pockets and then went into the house and called Mrs. Georgia Ingerick and told her that one of the brothers had been injured, and got her to bring some towels and water to the barn. Then he struck the woman, knocking her senseless. Rogers, thinking he had killed her, returned to the house and began his search for the money that he supposed was hidden. Little Alice Ingerick was in the kitchen. He induced her to go into the cellar, when he struck her with the same iron pipe with which he had hit her mother and beat her brains out.

Grand tonic for the aged and for female weaknesses. Great alterative and body builder; sure cure for lame back and weak kidneys. Guaranteed by E. S. Leadbeater & Sons, druggists, 50c.

Cold Weather in the West.

Before daylight yesterday morning a blizzard swept down on Omaha, and the great plains of Nebraska are now in the grip of a snowstorm, with the entire State covered from two to six inches. The wind is fierce and cold.

Mary Sheets, eight years old, of Omaha, was taken to the overseer of the poor yesterday with frozen feet. Her feet are so badly frozen that they may have to be amputated.

Reports from many places in Kansas represent wintry conditions as prevailing.

A snowstorm of blizzard proportions was raging at St. Joseph, Mo., yesterday morning.

There was a light fall of snow in Kansas City and in northwest Missouri yesterday morning following a cold rain.

Let me mail you free, to prove merit, samples of my Dr. Shoop's Restorative, and my Book on either Dyspepsia, The Heart, or The Kidneys. Address me, Dr. Shoop, Racine, Wis. Trouble of the Stomach, Heart or Kidneys, are merely symptoms of a deeper ailment. Don't make the common error of treating symptons only. Symptom treatment is treating the result of your ailment, and not the cause. Weak Stomach nerves—the inside nerves—means Stomach weakness, always. And the Heart, and Kidneys, as well, have their controlling or inside nerves. Weaken these nerves, and you inevitably have weak vital organs. Here is where Dr. Shoop's Restorative has made its fame. No other remedy even claims to treat the "inside nerves." Also for bloating, biliousness, bad breath or complexion, use Dr. Shoop's Restorative. Write for my free Book now. Dr. Shoop's Restorative sold by E. S. Leadbeater & Sons.
